

CAREERS IN PUBLIC OPINION AND SURVEY RESEARCH: A Panel and Networking Reception

April 10, 4-6 PM

Campus Center, Cape Cod Lounge
University of Massachusetts Amherst

The New England Chapter of the American Association for Public Opinion Research (NEAAPOR) is hosting a career panel featuring representatives from polling and survey research organizations conducting work in academic, political, marketing, private sector research, and media sectors. Students can learn about different career opportunities in survey research and ask questions about the field. A reception will provide opportunities to make personal connections.

The event is free and open to all.
