

“The Israeli- Palestinian Conflict: Two Narratives, Two Peoples, A Shared Land”

Rabbi Brian Walt

Executive Director

Rabbis for Human Rights - North America

Thursday March 5

5:00 pm

Franklin Patterson Hall

Main Lecture Hall

Hampshire College

Rabbi Walt’s talk, followed by a Q&A session, will address questions such as:

- ❖ Can one be a supporter of Israel while still disagreeing with its government’s policies?
- ❖ Can one be pro-Israeli and also pro-Palestinian?

Rabbi Walt will focus on traditional Jewish values and teachings regarding human rights and how they can affect Israel’s ability to work out a lasting peace with the Palestinian people, enabling both to flourish and grow. He will present a vision that focuses on respecting the rights and dignity of all while seeking a solution to the conflict that will allow all to live in peace and with mutual respect.

The lecture is free and open to the public.

It is funded by a grant from the Harold Grinspoon Foundation and sponsored through the Hampshire College Spiritual Life Office.

For more information, please contact Rabbi Steve Nathan at snathan@hampshire.edu or call 559-5282.