

Co-Existence: Case Study in Gilboa-Jenin

A Presentation and Conversation with Government Officials from Gilboa, Israel

In the heart of the contentious conflict, people and governments are working together showing that cooperation and coexistence is more than an idealistic dream. Come hear about joint economic endeavors, educational initiatives and development programs that are bridging the gap between Israeli Arabs, Israeli Jews and Palestinians of Jenin. Think coexistence in the Middle East is unattainable? Come hear what has been developing over the past two decades in Gilboa for some good news.

April 28, 7:30pm, UMass Campus Center 101

Free and Open to the Public

Sponsored by UMass Student Alliance for Israel, UMass Hillel, The David Project, Israel Consulate Boston, Stand With Us, ICC Israel Advocacy Grant Project and supported by the AVI CHAI Foundation and The Morningstar Foundation..