

The Hampshire College Music Program presents
An Evening of East European Jewish Music

featuring klezmer violinist

Alicia Svigals

with Christina Crowder, accordion

Alicia Svigals is the world's foremost fiddler of klezmer (East European Jewish) music. A founding member of the Grammy-award winning band the Klezmatics, Svigals creates contemporary Jewish music that combines the joyous and mystical Yiddish tradition with a postmodern aesthetic and a political worldview. Svigals has toured with violinist Itzhak Perlman, composed for the Kronos Quartet, and performs internationally. A composer who works in many genres, Svigals is a 2014 Fellow at the MacDowell Colony.

Lecture/Demonstration (open to all)

2:00 pm - 3:20 pm

Followed by a First Year Students
reception to meet the artist

For further information contact:

Becky Miller, rmiller@hampshire.edu

This event is made possible by Hampshire College's Music Program, the First Year Program, the Eliot Smith Music Fund, the Posen Foundation for Secular Jewish Culture Visiting Artists Project at Hampshire College, the Office of the President, and the Humanities Program of the School of Humanities, Arts, and Cultural Studies.

Photo by Tina Chaden.

Thursday
November 13, 2014
7:30 PM

Admission is Free
Music Recital Hall; Music and Dance Building
Hampshire College