

The Naomi Praver Kadar International YIDDISH SUMMER PROGRAM at TEL AVIV UNIVERSITY

The Naomi Praver Kadar International Yiddish Summer Program at Tel Aviv University is proud to announce its faculty members and guest lecturers for the summer of 2018 (July 01 to July 28). As in previous years, these outstanding educators from Israel, North America and Europe ensure the high quality of our language instruction and academic enrichment program

The Yiddish language teaching staff will be:

Mr. Daniel Birnbaum . Prof. Marc Caplan . Mr. Eliezer Niborski . Prof. Yitskhok Niborski . Prof. Avraham Novershtern . Dr. Alexandra Polyan . Ms. Esther Rollansky . Ms. Leah Skiba . Dr. Mirian Trinh . Dr. Yuri Vedenyapin

Guest Lecturers

Prof. David Roskies . Prof. Naomi Seidman

Literature and Cultural Program:

Professor Justin Cammy will offer a series of lectures on Yiddish Literature.

Dr. Yuri Vedenyapin will conduct a music workshop, as part of the cultural enrichment program, which also includes tours and musical events.

As students of TAU International, the Tel Aviv University School for Overseas Students, participants will be eligible for 80 hours of language and literature instruction (four credits).

The costs of the program are:

- $ 1450 tuition
- $ 60 registration fee
- $ 800 for housing (double occupancy).

Scholarships are available for full time students.

Academic Program Directors:

Prof. Hana Wirth-Nesher, Tel Aviv University

Prof. Avraham Novershtern, The Hebrew University of Jerusalem,
Beth Shalom Aleichem

Online Registration: www.international.tau.ac.il

Closing Date for Applications: May 1, 2018.

For additional information, please contact:

The Naomi Praver Kadar International Yiddish Summer Program

Tel: +972-3-6407805 Fax: +972-3-6407732

naomiyiddish@tauex.tau.ac.il

www.naomiyiddish.tau.ac.il

THE NAOMI
FOUNDATION

