Inch by inch row by row gonna make this garden grow all it takes is a rake and a hoe and a piece of fertile ground someone warm them from below til the rain comes tumbling down

Pulling weeds and picking stones we are made of dreams and bones

Grain for grain sun and rain I find my ways in nature's chain

I tune my body and my brain to the music of the land song

mother earth can keep you strong if you give her love and care an old crow watching hungrily from his perch in yonder tree

In my garden I'm as free as that feathered thief up there

all it takes is a rake and a hoe and a piece of fertile ground
