

On April 22 more than 1 billion people will be celebrating Earth Day. Here at UMass Amherst, events will bring our community together to inform and energize us to take action for a greener and more inclusive campus!

Join us for Earth Day 2014 on April 22

JOIN Sustainable UMass students, faculty, and staff for scholarly reflection, discussion, debate, community service, and artistic celebration as we demonstrate our commitment to a healthy, sustainable campus for all.

Climate Change:

Building a Diverse Movement for Environmental Justice and Sustainability

K E Y N O T E A D D R E S S

Dr. Robert Bullard

Father of Environmental Justice

Robert D. Bullard is dean of the Barbara Jordan-Mickey Leland School of Public Affairs at Texas Southern University. He previously served as Ware Professor of Sociology and Director of the Environmental Justice Resource Center at Clark Atlanta University and is often described as the father of environmental justice. Bullard is author of 17 books addressing issues of sustainable development, environmental racism, urban land use, climate justice, emergency response, and regional equity. In 2008, Newsweek named Bullard one of 13 Environmental Leaders of the Century and in 2013, he was honored with the Sierra Club John Muir Award.

Tuesday, April 22, 2014, 7 p.m. • Mahar Auditorium

Free & Open To the Public

For complete schedule details visit
umass.edu/sustainability

Co-sponsored by

UMASS
AMHERST
LIBRARIES
www.library.umass.edu

UMASS
DINING
UMassAmherst

UMassAmherst
RESIDENTIAL LIFE