Land Stewardship Assistant Director - The Hartsbrook School - Job Posting

We are seeking candidates for the Land Stewardship Assistant Director position starting mid August 2018.

The Land Stewardship Assistant Director is a part-time position with an average of 35 hours /week that supports the pedagogical and practical work of the Land Stewardship Program at the Hartsbrook School.

The primary focus of the Land Stewardship Program is to provide students with the opportunity to connect with the natural world around them, through hands-on, authentic experiences in a farm, garden and wild setting. This supports learning through direct relationship and enables students to develop skills and capacity and find their purpose and place in the world.

The ideal candidate will have a background in education, agriculture and/or the environment and an interest in Waldorf education. Benefits include employer contributions to health and dental plans, contributions to a 403(b) plan after the first year of employment, and short-term and long-term disability insurance.

To apply -

please send a letter of interest, your resume and the names of three references to:
