

BROWN at BROWN 2003

The New England Latino Leadership Conference

Saturday, February 22, 2003 Brown University, Providence, RI

Hello.

We invite you to join us on Saturday, February 22, 2003 for the Brown at Brown 2003: New England Latino Leadership Conference on the campus of Brown University, in Providence, Rhode Island. This conference will provide students and community leaders with the unique opportunity to convene, dialogue, network, and organize.

The diverse program slate will focus on a broad spectrum of topics related to the Latino community in the United States. Program sessions will include: Latino politics, immigration issues, diversity, the media, education, and language.

Registration information will be e-mailed to you shortly. Please share this information widely with interested students and colleagues. If you have any questions please contact Salvador _Mena@brown.edu or (401) 863-3145.

Don't miss this historical and memorable gathering!

Conference Committee

For more information contact Salvador Mena, Assistant Dean of Student Life, Brown University (401) 863-3145 or Salvador_Mena@brown.edu